Midway Henry Fonda and Charlton Heston head a star-packed cast in this blockbuster war movie. 'MIDWAY' re-creates the thunderous showdown at Midway Island, the most critical battle in the Pacific in World War II.

MIDWAY tells the story of the remarkable American victory from both sides. The dramatic background and the climactic battle itself are seen from both the American and Japanese viewpoints. This movie reveals the stunning combination of courage, skill and luck that resulted in the U.S. triumph, as well as the individual dramas of the men caught up in the compelling tides of war.

When the battle of Midway began the Japanese were approaching total domination in the Pacific. An assault on the California coast seemed inevitable. Only four U.S. warships could stop the enemy, and they were perilously outnumbered by the superior Japanese force.

Henry Fonda plays the role of U.S. Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, Commander of the Pacific Fleet. Fonda re-creates the precarious position in which Nimitz found himself prior to the battle. With a partially decoded Japanese message indicating that Midway Island was the next target, Nimitz devised a daring plan to ambush the larger force. This move was in direct opposition to the conventional wisdom of the U.S. High Command. If the gamble failed, nothing would stand in the way of a Japanese attack on Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Dramatic action filmed at sea aboard the USS Lexington is supplemented by actual war film — recorded by Naval photographers from cameras mounted in fighter planes.

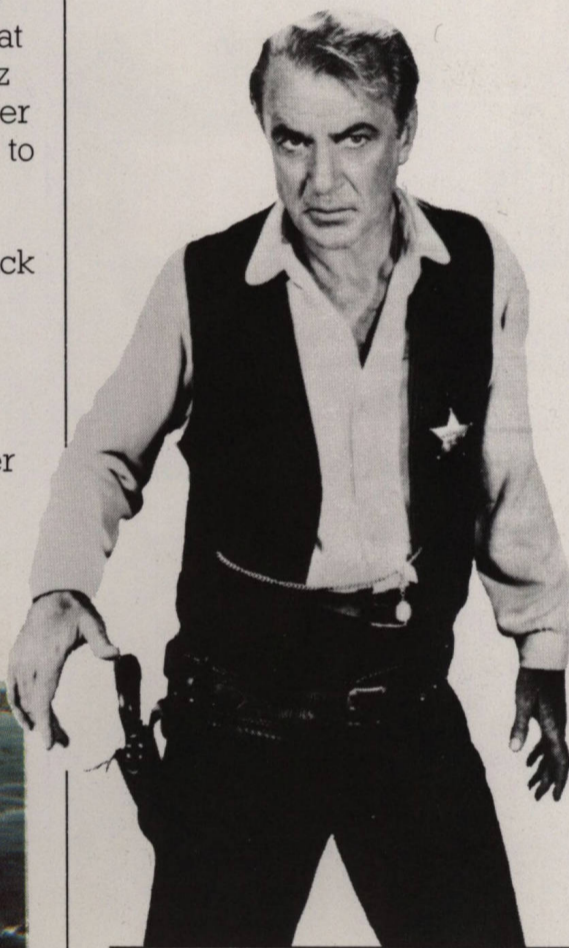

An all-star cast in MIDWAY, the dramatic story of the World War II sea battle that changed the course of history.

Fonda and Heston are joined in MIDWAY by a powerful supporting cast including James Coburn, Glenn Ford, Hal Holbrook, Robert Mitchum, Robert Wagner, Cliff Robertson and international Japanese star Toshiro Mifune. Many of the stars in MIDWAY served in the Pacific in World War II. A great war action movie about a monumental moment in history!

This film is rated PG because of violence and language. Dec. 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 24, 29, 30 and 31. $3.00

High Noon (1952) One of the best Westerns ever made! Gary Cooper won an Oscar for his performance as Marshal Will Kane, a retiring sheriff who puts his badge back on to save an ungrateful town from four desperate gunfighters. Cooper, at the peak of his magnificent career, is teamed with the beautiful young Grace Kelly. This suspense-filled movie won 4 Academy Awards. Also stars Lloyd Bridges, Thomas Mitchell, Katy Jurado and Lon Chaney, Jr. Dec. 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 17 and 18. $1.00

Gary Cooper as a lone lawman facing four desperate gunfighters in HIGH NOON, one of Hollywood's best Westerns.

Silent Movie Must be seen — but not necessarily heard — to be believed. This Mel (Blazing Saddles) Brooks movie bowled over the critics and convulsed movie-goers. Rex Reed said, "Mel Brooks is a comic genius. SILENT MOVIE must be seen." "The funniest comedy in 50 years," said Vernon Scott of UPI. Gene Shalit called it "side-splitting (also front and back splitting)." Marty Feldman, Dom Deluise and Sid Caesar join in this mercilous assault on your funnybone.

This movie carries a PG rating because of language and adult situations that may not be suitable for pre-teenagers. But, as Vincent Canby (The New York Times) said, It is the sort of stuff "...that small children find pricelessly funny..." Dec. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, 10, 29, 30 and 31. $3.00

Not one, not two, but three Peter Sellers in the comedy gem THE MOUSE THAT ROARED.

Demon Seed A beautiful woman...a master computer...and the most shocking act imaginable...

Academy Award winner Julie Christie stars as a woman terrorized by an all-powerful computer with human urges. Incredible technology serves and enslaves people of the future. A supercomputer (Proteus IV) with an organic brain directs the activities of smaller machines and engages Christie in a chilling struggle. Be prepared for a terrifying experience. And congratulations to anyone who can guess the actor who provides the voice of the computer.

This movie is rated R because of language, nudity and adult situations. Dec. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 29 and 30. $2.50

The Mouse That Roared (1959) Starring Peter (Inspector Clouseau) Sellers in three riotous roles! Hilarious comedy for the entire family. The Grand Duchy of Fenwick comes up with an outrageous solution to bankruptcy. Why not declare war on the United States! Fenwick's old-fashioned army is bound to lose, and the Americans will replenish their treasury with foreign aid. Funnyman Sellers plays his triple role to comic perfection. Don't miss the invasion of New York City! And be sure to see the joke before the opening titles — it's a masterpiece. Dec. 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11. $1.00

Julie Christie fights for her dignity and her life against an all-powerful computer in the futuristic thriller DEMON SEED.

A Star is Born Barbra Streisand and Kris Kristofferson explode on the screen in one of the most important movies of the year. A new version of the classic love story involving one star on the way up and another star on the way down. Knowledgeable movie fans say this is Barbra's best. Theme song "Evergreen" is one of the most popular songs of 1977.

This movie has been assigned an R rating due to mature language and situations. Dec. 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 30, and 31. $3.50

Raggedy Ann & Andy An animated musical version of the popular Raggedy Ann & Andy stories. This is one of those rare children's movies that the entire family can enjoy. Music is by Sesame Street's award-winning songwriter Joe Raposo. The animation was created by Academy Award winner Richard Williams, the genius behind the Pink Panther cartoons. This delightful feature length motion picture has been specially scheduled for your holiday entertainment. Dec. 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 24, 25, 28, 29 and 31. $2.50

Amarcord (1974) Directed by Federico Fellini — The title means "I remember". If you know Fellini, you'll want to see Amarcord — again and again. If you've never seen one of his movies, don't miss this opportunity. Fellini re-creates the memories of his teenage years in a small Italian town. Time magazine's movie critic Jay Cocks called Amarcord "...some of the finest work Fellini has ever done — which also means that it stands with the best anyone in films has ever achieved." Two versions will be alternated on QUBE, one dubbed in English, the other with outstanding English sub-titles. This movie carries an R rating because of nudity and adult situations. Dec. 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17. $2.50

Sahara (1943) World War II adventure with Humphrey Bogart as Sgt. Joe Gunn, leader of a British-American unit trapped in the desert. Tension mounts and the action comes fast as Bogart turns the tables on the Nazis. Vintage Bogart at his best. Dec. 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20 and 21. $1.00

The Seven Year Itch (1955) Marilyn Monroe as we remember her best! Marilyn is comedian Tom Ewell's new upstairs neighbor. The fun begins when Ewell's family leaves for the beach. You'll love Marilyn and sympathize with summer bachelor Ewell in this warm, romantic comedy. Also stars Victor Moore and Sonny Tufts. (That's right, Sonny Tufts!) Dec. 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22. $1.00

The Pajama Game (1957) Doris Day in the movie version of the smash Broadway musical comedy. Doris is the head of the grievance committee in a pajama factory. She's got an armload of complaints for factory foreman John Raitt. John can't wait to come to grips with Doris and her grievances. We promise you'll leave your QUBE humming songs like "Hey, There", "Hernando's Hideaway", and "Steam Heat". Dec. 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9. $1.00

Marilyn Monroe brings her legendary, magical presence to QUBE in the romantic comedy THE SEVEN YEAR ITCH.

The Enforcer Clint Eastwood is Dirty Harry, a tough San Francisco detective. The Mayor is kidnapped by a vicious band of terrorists and it's up to Dirty Harry to find His Honor and free the city from the reign of fear. Harry's ready to take the bad guys on singlehandedly, but he's burdened with a rookie policewoman who is assigned to assist him. If you like hard-boiled action movies you'll love Dirty Harry, The Enforcer. This movie is rated R. It includes violence and adult situations. Dec. 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14. $3.00

A Streetcar Named Desire (1951) Marlon Brando and Vivian Leigh sizzle in this multiple Academy Award winner. Brando's first movie, and the basis for every Brando imitation you've ever seen. Screenplay by Tennessee Williams, based on his hit Broadway play. "Throbs with passion and poignancy," said The New York Times. Famed movie critic Pauline Kael called Leigh's performance "just about the best feminine performance you're ever going to see, as well as an interpretation by Brando that is just about perfection."

Recommended for mature audiences. Dec. 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27 and 29. $1.00

Clint Eastwood is Dirty Harry

A gang of terrorists don't get the chance to say they're sorry in THE ENFORCER.

The Maltese Falcon (1941) Humphrey Bogart is private eye Sam Spade. We suspect this was the inspiration for just about every other private eye movie ever filmed. Bogart is hired to find the fabulous jewelled falcon of Malta. Villains Sydney Greenstreet and Peter Lorre are also on the trail of the mysterious black bird. Mary Astor is a puzzling femme fatale. This is your chance to see this classic free of commercial interruptions. Dec. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8. $1.00

Frankenstein (1931) The original monster movie. Next to this one, all other Frankenstein movies pale in comparison. Boris Karloff is the monster, created by a mad scientist who accidentally used the brain of a criminal. Karloff portrays the monster as a terrifying, yet sympathetic character. See the original Frankenstein, a fascinating blend of raw power, suspense and loneliness! Dec. 23, 24, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30 and 31. $1.00

Jim Thorpe — All-American (1951) Burt Lancaster plays the great Jim Thorpe, perhaps America's most celebrated athlete. Thorpe conquers the Olympic Games, then sees his fame evaporate after a series of setbacks. Upon his return to the U.S. he is stripped of his medals. Lancaster delivers a wonderful dramatic performance as Thorpe. If you enjoyed "Rocky" and "Brian's Song," you'll love and cheer Jim Thorpe — All-American. Dec. 23, 24, 25, 26, 28, 29, 30 and 31. $1.00

Marriage Italian-Style (1964) Sophia Loren and Marcello Mastroianni in a spicy romantic comedy. Sophia wants more than love from Marcello. After twenty years, she's determined to make him marry her. Marcello believes indecision is the better part of valor, and he won't give in without a fight. But Sophia can be very convincing. Don't bet on bachelorhood to win! Dec. 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17. $1.00

Boris Karloff

Bach at Christmastime A Holiday Special On QUBE: TWO CONCERTS FOR THE PRICE OF ONE! The "Magnificat", one of the finest works of Johann Sebastian Bach, performed in the Dresden Cultural Palace by an outstanding collection of soloists, choir and orchestra. Splendid solos by Barbara Hoene and Helga Termer. Choir and orchestra conducted by Professor Martin Flamig. Dec. 8, 11, 22, 24, 25 and 26.

Also a concert by two famous traditional choirs, The Boys' and Men's Choir from the Poznan State Philharmonic (conducted by Stefan Stuligrosz) and The Thomaner Choir of Leipzig (conducted by Hans-Joachim Rotzsch). Filmed in the cathedrals of Leipzig, Freiberg and Poznan. Highlights include the introductory and final choruses from Bach's "Oratorio", Christmas carols from Germany and Poland, and the sounds of the grand Silberman organ of the Freiberg Cathedral. Dec. 8, 11, 22, 24, 25 and 26. $2.50

Two symphonies by Johannes Brahms Another Holiday Special On QUBE: The Boston Symphony Orchestra conducted by Leonard Bernstein. A QUBE SIMULCAST (A).

Symphony No. 2 in D Major, OP. 73 This month marks the 100th anniversary of the first performance of Brahms' Second Symphony. This gentle pastoral symphony reflects the composer's love of walking, sitting alone at the beach, and enjoying the sounds of nature. "So many melodies fly about here," Brahms once remarked, "that one must be wary not to step on them."

Symphony No. 4 in E Minor, OP. 98 Brahms destroyed many lesser scores in search of the perfect symphony. His Fourth Symphony is the result of this quest for perfection. The First Movement is confident, forceful and invigorating. The rich Second and Third Movements set the mood for the fascinating Fourth, consisting of a simple theme and 31 subsequent variations. This is a majestic listening and viewing experience. An ideal way to set aside the pressures of the holidays and relax as Brahms did while laboring over his Fourth Symphony in the mountains near Vienna. Dec. 1, 10, 15, 18, 21 and 29. $2.50

Madame Butterfly This is perhaps the most famous and best-loved of the world's operas. Giacomo Puccini's tragedy of Madame Butterfly in three acts is sung in the original Italian. First performed at La Scala, Milan in 1904, this is the story of a 15 year old Japanese girl who marries a callous American Naval Lieutenant. A beautiful and touching performance. Dec. 11, 12, 25, 26 and 28. A QUBE SIMULCAST (A). $2.50

The Marriage of Figaro Delightful comic opera with music by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart and libretto by Lorenzo da Ponte. Based on a popular play by Beaumarchais. Figaro is making plans for his wedding, but a despicable Count stands in his way. Mistaken identities lead to wonderfully wild comic situations! Dec. 5, 7, 18 and 19. $2.50

Sleeping Beauty A beautiful ballet version of the timeless German folktale. The German State Opera production is a glorious, colorful spectacle. This particular production of "Sleeping Beauty", with its splendid wedding scene at the climax, is especially suited for younger members of your family. Dec. 6, 11, 14, 20 and 25. A QUBE SIMULCAST (A). $2.50

Swan Lake Rudolf Nureyev and Margot Fonteyn in Tschaikovsky's magnificent four-act ballet. The two most famous ballet performers in the world dance the roles of Prince Siegfried and Princess Odette in this tragic love story. If you've never seen "Swan Lake", you're in for a delightful and rewarding viewing experience. Nureyev's sensational dancing in the final scene is unforgettable! Dec. 13, 17, 18 and 27. $2.50

Leonard Bernstein conducts The Boston Symphony Orchestra in two symphonies by Brahms.

Scapino Time magazine said this Broadway play is "an evening of sheer comic bedlam." The New York Times said "...if you miss it you will be crazy, and if you let your kids miss it you will be inhuman." Jim Dale (currently starring in the Walt Disney movie "Pete's Dragon") is Scapino, a servant who comes to the aid of a pair of lovers. Dale is a one man comedy conglomerate whose performance will remind you of Bert Lahr, Harold Lloyd, Buster Keaton and W. C. Fields. Wait until you see what he does with a giant rubber sausage. If Scapino doesn't tickle your fancy, bring your fancy to us and we will tickle it personally. Dec. 11, 14, 16, 24, 26, 29. $2.50 Parental guidance is advised due to mature language.

Deaf School A British group that thinks rock 'n roll, as we know it today, is too dull. They are anything but dull! Enrico Cadillac, Jr., The Rev. Max Ripple, Bette Bright and, yes, even Mr. Average defy dullness with their combined talents. Their songs include "Taxi", "Don't Stop The World" and "Capaldi's Cafe" (featuring a great Dylan parody in mid-song). It's a great new rock 'n roll, and dull it's not! Dec. 2, 3, 5, 9, 13, 14, 22, 24, 30. $1.50 A QUBE SIMULCAST (A).

Cafe Manhattan: A QUBE Exclusive Produced especially for QUBE's Columbus subscribers before a live audience at Reno Sweeney's, the famous New York nightclub. Hosted by newspaper and magazine columnist, Chip Orton, CAFE MANHATTAN is like having the best seats in the house, and the house is your own. Parental guidance is suggested due to the use of mature language. Dec. 2, 6, 10, 15, 19, 21, 25, 27, 31. A QUBE SIMULCAST (A).

Café Manhattan includes 6 different acts for $2.00. These acts include:

Helen Schneider She's being compared to Barbra Streisand, Bernadette Peters and Judy Garland. There's really no comparison. Helen Schneider is one of the most distinctive singers to appear on the entertainment scene in the past decade.

Exclusively produced for you on QUBE, Café Manhattan spotlights the stars of 1978 — and a couple acts you just won't believe! All for $2.00.

Wayland Flowers You've seen Wayland on HOLLYWOOD SQUARES and the ANDY WILLIAMS SHOW but you've never seen him turned loose with an adult audience. Wayland and his outrageous puppet, Madame, bring new life to the art of comedy ventriloquism. You've seen nothing like this act on TV.

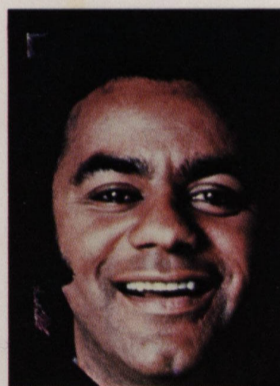

Gregory Fleeman A "new school" comedian. Watch for his rendition of his insane song, "Nutsy Lady".

Sally Kellerman You know Sally Kellerman primarily as a movie actress (M*A*S*H, Welcome to LA) but she's also a talented singer and dancer. Her exclusive preview on QUBE's Café Manhattan could be the start of something big!

Cissy Houston has been a back-up singer for everyone from Elvis Presley to Dionne Warwick. Now this ordained minister, with a powerful voice, is moving out on her own. We think you'll agree it's about time. Wait until you hear her sing "Tomorrow" from the smash Broadway Musical "Annie." She stops the show.

The Governor and the Dishwasher. The Governor is former Georgia Chief of State Lester Maddox, and The Dishwasher is a man he sent to prison. Together they form a most unusual song and dance act. We don't say they're Astaire and Kelly, but we think you'll find this novelty act, shall we say, "very interesting!"

Christmas 1977 is the theme of the Johnny Mathis special.

One time only!
ESP phenomenon
David Hoy. 8 pm, Dec. 18.
P channel 7.

LIVE on QUBE: Psychic David Hoy Dr. David Hoy, an expert on extrasensory perception (ESP) will appear LIVE on QUBE and answer your questions about life, health and even finance. You will take part in this program as Dr. Hoy discusses ESP (what it is and how you can develop your own) and demonstrates psychic games in which you try to guess the words or symbols on his mind. You'll also be able to call in your own questions. David Hoy has a phenomenal record. He has uncovered everything from lost rings to sunken treasures. As a special feature on this program, Dr. Hoy will announce his Annual Predictions concerning events that will take place in 1978. Sunday, December 18, 8 pm only, exclusively on QUBE. $2.00

Johnny Mathis: Christmas 1977 Chances are that you have one of Johnny Mathis' popular albums of Christmas music in your personal record collection. Now, in a bright new program produced especially for the 1977 holiday season, Johnny brings new life and meaning to popular and traditional Christmas music. Lovely and talented singer-actress Diahann Carroll is Johnny's special guest. Johnny and a children's choir will sing a medley of the best-loved Christmas carols from around the world. Johnny Mathis and Christmas 1977 is holiday entertainment at its very finest. Dec. 13, 17, 18, 19, 22 and 27. $2.00

Bobby Short is known as a "singer's singer" whose forte is Broadway show songs. For years he's been a melodic mainstay at New York's chic Café Carlyle. QUBE brings you a very special performance recorded before a live audience at L'Espace Cardin in Paris. Great songs by Cole Porter and George Gershwin are the heart and soul of this magnificent performance by the talented Mr. Bobby Short. Dec. 3, 4, 7, 11, 17, 18, 20, 28 and 30. $2.00

A Hard Day's Night Starring the Beatles The world hasn't been the same since John, Paul, George and Ringo became The Beatles, the most influential British export since Tom Paine. This is the Beatles' first movie, and it's a Marx Brothers-like sequence of episodes that is supposedly a typical day in the life of Britain's Fab Four. Before it's over, The Beatles have sung 15 of their hits and made a shambles of everything from press conferences to public appearances. You can't help loving them, yea, yea, yea. Dec. 2, 4, 6, 10, 16, 23, 31. $1.50

Spice on Ice It's time to put the kids to bed when these Las Vegas showgirls lace up their skates for this dazzling musical-comedy revue! Join George ("the Fred Astaire on ice") Arnold, comedy magician Berri Lee and ventriloquist Stu Scott on ice at the Hacienda Hotel for the kind of bare-breasted extravaganza that Las Vegas is famous for. Dec. 1, 3, 4, 7, 9, 12, 17, 22, 24, 28, 30. $3.00

200 Motels Frank Zappa and "The Mothers of Invention" star in this wild full length motion picture. Ringo Starr makes a special appearance. Wait until you see and hear Zappa conducting the London Philharmonic Orchestra. Actor-folksinger Theodore Bikel co-stars. This movie is rated R because of some nudity and mature language. Dec. 5, 9, 10, 14, 15, 16, 23 and 24. $1.50

Special: A Beatles New Year Festival Welcome 1978 with four feature length movies starring John, Paul, George and Ringo. What an added attraction for your New Year's eve party! In your own home, exclusively on QUBE, you'll see the Beatles in MAGICAL MYSTERY TOUR, LET IT BE, YELLOW SUBMARINE and A HARD DAY'S NIGHT. The BEATLES FESTIVAL will be shown one night only on December 31. HAPPY NEW YEAR to you from QUBE. $1.50 per movie

CBGB One of the most fascinating clubs in New York. CBGB is a "let it all hangout" for rock musicians, writers and their friends. Neon beer signs hang overhead and the patrons at CBGB look like they stepped off the movie set of Star Wars. This recorded-live performance features punk rock acts ORCHESTRA LUNA, THE SHIRTS and STEVE FORBERT. Dec. 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 24, 25, 30. $1.00

A Jazz Festival Performance by Roberta Flack One of the best voices in contemporary music in a rare video appearance. Roberta (The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face) appeared at this festival just prior to her breakthrough on the popular music charts. A fascinating performance. Dec. 14, 16, 19, 21, 23, 24, 29, 30. $1.50

The Beatles in "A Hard Day's Night" and, in a QUBE New Year's Eve Special, a Beatles' movie marathon. Remember: Dec. 31.

Columbus Alive Did you ever wish you really knew what was going on around town? Well, you'll soon have the chance to find out, on QUBE's COLUMBUS ALIVE channel (C-1).

An Invitation to Visit Pinwheel House

Pinwheel (C-3) is a video channel dedicated exclusively to pre-school age children. Pinwheel is a very special channel with a total absence of commercials and violence. Youngsters can enjoy Pinwheel 7 days a week from 7:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m. There is no beginning, middle or end. We invite you to visit Pinwheel House even if there are no pre-schoolers in your home. You will find that it is an imaginative, consistent alternative to the kinds of children's programming currently aired on commercial TV.

Live and Learn is a free channel devoted entirely to community information and special programs on health, travel, sports, public affairs and special needs. QUBE's Live and Learn channel, C-10, shows you programs you can't get elsewhere, including Pele explaining the fine points of soccer, an interactive program on defensive driving, and specially-captioned programs for the hearing-impaired. Live and Learn will help you learn more about yourself and your community in an informal way. And the programs are scheduled at a variety of times so that you can Live and Learn at your convenience.

Join Ebenezer and his friends for Pinwheel.

Russ Meyer is one of the most controversial names in adult movies. His production of Vixen was one of the most sensational and talked about movies of the 60s. SUPER VIXENS goes many steps farther. This movie bulges at the seams with love, violence and unrelenting hate. Also "six of the most bountiful women in the world." $3.50

Cry Uncle That's the name of the movie. This is a wacky, hilarious satire about the erotic adventures of a not-so-private eye. The New York Times movie critic said "comes on like a fire engine sparing nothing! I shook with laughter". Cue magazine said

"wild, racy, bold satire...laughs galore! Pulls out all the stops." Popular character actor Allen Garfield is the private peeper. The movie was directed by John Avildsen (who recently directed the hit movie "Rocky"). $3.00

Sometimes Sweet Susan Adult movie superstar Harry Reemes stars in this unusual movie. Gallery magazine covergirl Shawn Harris co-stars. A young girl is locked in a mental institution with no knowledge of how she got there. Harry Reemes plays the young doctor who unlocks the strange secret in her past. One critic wrote that SOMETIMES SWEET SUSAN is "captured with such rare beauty and eroticism that it may someday be looked back on as one of the masterpieces of the period." Rex Reed compared this film to "all the basic rituals in the Kama-Sutra." $3.50

As you can see by browsing through this magazine there are a lot of different facets when it comes to your QUBE. ON QUBE is designed to familiarize you with each month's programming. However, from time to time there will be some scheduling changes and we suggest that you check your FREE program guide channels (P-1 and T-1) for changes and the addition of special programs (like sporting events). Each month on these pages we'll fill you in on interesting stories "behind your QUBE" as well as information about up-coming programs and new QUBE services.

What's In A Name? Many people have asked us what the word QUBE actually means. One interested observer suggested that it means Question Us, Be Entertained. Not bad!

Actually there's no mystery about the name. We created the word QUBE especially for what we feel is a brand new communications medium. No other medium offers you the variety of choice or the opportunity to participate with the programming that is brought into your home. We think that in a relatively short period of time the word QUBE will come to symbolize the very best in quality at-home information, education, entertainment and community participation.

Stereo Option A special Stereophonic service is one of the many additional services available to QUBE subscribers. We will regularly present FIVE CHANNELS of Stereo music and these special audio channels can be wired directly to your tuner. Each Stereo Channel will be presented 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, entirely free of commercial interruptions. These channels include: Classical Music, Soft Rock, Great American Country, Beautiful Music and Solid Gold Sounds of the 50s, 60s and 70s. In addition many of the programs presented on QUBE's Premium (P) Channels will be simulcast in Stereo. If you have the Stereo Option you'll receive a superior audio signal that surpasses by far standard television audio. Programs presented in simulcast are designated in this magazine by the letter S. The many local programs presented on QUBE's Columbus Alive Channel (C-1) will also be presented in Stereo and the audio portion of these programs can be tuned in on your home receiver. There is no additional monthly charge for this special Stereo QUBE service once you pay a modest $10.00 installation fee.

C'mon and Participate We think you'll enjoy touching QUBE's response buttons and participating in many of QUBE's programs and events.

But there's another way you can participate. QUBE's Columbus Alive channel (C-1) is the only ALL LIVE, ALL LOCAL video channel in the world. According to U.S. Government statistics, less than 10% of an average commercial television station's program time is devoted to local programming. Most of that 10% is devoted to news programming.

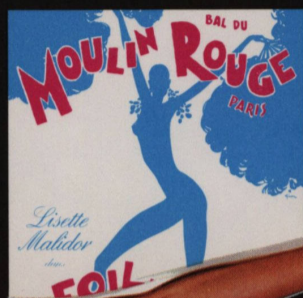

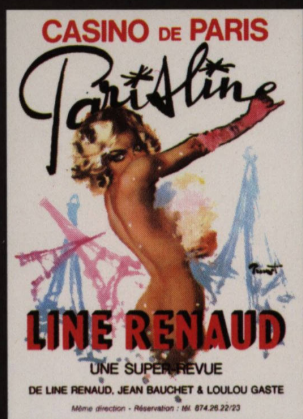

COLUMBUS ALIVE is all LIVE and ALL LOCAL. In essence it is your channel and we look forward to the day when we can say that nearly every person in the Columbus area has had the opportunity to appear on Columbus Alive.

If there's a specific program that you would like to be on, feel free to drop us a note. Write to Columbus Alive, c/o QUBE, 1201 Olentangy River Road, Columbus 43212.

Letters, We Want Letters Let us know what you think of QUBE and QUBE programs. We want to hear from you. Send your ideas, thoughts (even your criticisms) to ON QUBE, 930 Kinnear Road, Columbus 43212.
